

Interested with immigration background

My child has succeeded and is a police commissioner at the Rhineland-palatine police.

Dear parents,

I'm sure it means a lot to you that your son or your daughter will learn a profession which is respected, offers free studies, is interesting, crisis-proof and even has good advancement opportunities and earnings.

So please support your child in there career choice and help them get police officers. We would like to invite your child to a selection procedure.

The Police of Rhineland-palatine has much to offer to your daughter or your son:

- a qualified study with the degree of "Bachelor of Arts"
- a crisis-proof career
- a career which starts with the appointment as a police commissioner after the study
- about 1000 € salary while studying
- good balance between family and work

Hope to see you soon. It's not necessary to have the german nationality
